He was confronted with the statement that Senators Kyle and Hunten had identified him as the man who had attempted to corrupt them, and having in to Senator Hansbrough laid the responsibility for this charge at the doors of the newspapers and relieved the senator from all blame, he was placed in a somewhat embarrassing position and the brief ferences to his testimony indicate that he made an effort to excuse himself and explain away the entire charge. He ex-plicitly denied any intention on his part to corrupt the senators. It is also under-stood that he politely declined to answer some of the more pertinent questions put to him by members of the committee.

Other witnesses of the niternoon were Dunean McFarlane, Senator Kyle's clerk, and James W. Walker, an attorney of this rity, who gave Buttz a letter to Epha Hunton, Jr. Mr. Walker said that when Buttz had asked for a letter to Mr. Hunton, Jr. Mr. Walker said that when Buttz had asked for a letter to Mr. Hunton he had said he wanted to employ him as an atterney and had given no other reason for wasting to know that gentleman. Mr. McFarlane told how, after Senator Kyle had referred Butiz to him, he had talked with him and made notes upo averagion. He confirmed Senator statement and sale emphatically entiz had made a direct proposition to bribe the senator to vote against the tariff bill. He also submitted his note: his conversation with Buttz.

FIFTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

In the S nate. WASHINGTON, May 21.-The senate met at 10 o'clock this morning. After the morping hour the tariff bill was taken up and the first amendment was that of placing a duty of 40 cents per ton on iron specific.

Mr. Aldrich took the floor and addressed the senate on the anemalous position of the Democrats in the senate and that ob-taining during the compaign in Mass-achusetts, when they promised free raw material. He scored Senator Mills and while so doing the latter entered the chember, which resulted in a lively tilt. Mr. Mills spoke but briefly. He had Mr. Mills spake but briefly. He had long given up all hope of converting his Republican colleagues. Past experience had taught him after all arguments had been brought to bear they would still believe the lie and be damned. He saw no hope for them.

The laws of Kansas are to the effect that if a woman dies from the producing of or an attempt to produce an abortion the participants are guilty of murder. It was under this section that A. R. Wilcox and Dr. R. M. Young were arrested Saturday night charged with the murder of Carrie

Belle Wilcox, wife of the former.

Mrs. Wilcox died Sunday morning, May 13th, at her home in the First ward. Her death was a surprise to everyone, as no one had heard of her illness, but when the statement was given out that it was the result of passing a dead foctus, caused from an attack of measles, followed by blood poisoning, the public's mind was at rest and no further talk was occasioned. The developments of Saturday haye revived the talk and the interest in the case. What defense Wilcox and Young will make we cannot say. We are told that they have nothing to say except that the charge is the result of spite work and was brought about by Wilcox's refusal to deed eighty acres of land to Mrs. Clemens. Wilcox claims that Mrs. Clemens threatened to do this unless she got the land.

Wilcox and Young were arrested and taken to Winfield and kept in custody until today when they were brought here and taken before Judge Parry, where their preliminary was fixed for Friday and their bonds at $12,000 each, which they are prepared to give. death was a surprise to everyone, as no one had heard of her illness, but when the

On the contrary, her garments will be prettier, and she herself will be, if that is possible, more effeminate, more gentle and tender than she is now. Why? Because she will realize, by being all those, that her power will be increased in a corresponding ratio. Woman's rights are invariably associated in a man's mind with the loud-voiced woman, the woman without little personal vanities, the woman who is indifferent to her appearance, who wears big boots and would like to wear high hats and make other incursions on his wardrobe. a the reigning power now, and, looking at things from this point of vision, can he be blamed for not wanting to abdicate in favor of anyone so unattractive to him as this person? There will be more marriages for love in her day than there are now, for the reason that natural selection will replace convenience. She will be qualified for work, and, not fearing it, will not marry for support. She will be able to provide for herself, and when she marries it will be because she loves the man, because he is congenial and sympathetic to her and will not retard her mental and moral development. She will be fearless and frank, and will have the courage of her convictions."
